1. Overview

Firefox Menu

This extension to the FireFox browser contains links to approximately 70 web resources of interest to the Feingold For President Movement. These resources include "the National "Russ Cafe" discussion board, the chat room at russforpresident.com, prepackaged searches through many of the leading search engines, all the blogs in the "50 Blogs for Feingold" program, as well as Feingold's official Senate, Senate Campaign, and PAC.

This extension only works with the Mozilla FireFox browser. That is to say that it won't work with Microsoft Internet Explorer or any other Netscape browser. You can get the FireFox browser for free by clicking here.

The source code is posted at RussForge.

2. Downloading and Installation

There are versions of this extension available directly at RussForge, but they require a special installation procedure to install. The option of downloading from RussForge is open to everyone, but it's much easier to download and install directly from <https://addons.mozilla.org/firefox/2447/>.

Simply click the "Install Now" button on that page to install. Then, when you restart FireFox, the menu should appear in the main menubar, next to the "Help" menu. If you still don't see it, you can hold down the "Alt" key and press "8" to pop open the menu.
